MEDICINAL.

They are only bubbles, those maiden fancies of love, marriage and motherhood. But what beautiful bubbles they are! Who does not wish that all these fancies could end as did the old fairy stories, "and they lived happily ever after." Pain soon pricks the bubbles, and nothing remains of all the hope and gladness of the bride but a bridal veil and a piece of stale wedding cake.

The only way in which happiness can be realized in marriage is by being forearmed against its dangers. Most young women are ignorant of the fact that irregularity means a derangement of the womanly functions which may have far reaching consequences after marriage. With this derangement the start there often follows the drains, ulcerations and inflammations which make life one long misery.

A certain cure for irregularity and other diseases peculiar to women is found in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine nor other narcotic.

"I was so weak I did not have breath to walk across my room," writes Miss Isabelle Miller, of New Providence, Calhoun Co., Ky. "My periods occurred too often and the hemorrhage would be prolonged and the loss of blood very excessive. I also had nervous prostration. My stomach would cramp until I could not straighten. I did not gain strength from one monthly period to another; was very weak and nervous all the time. The doctor told me I did not know what was the cause of my trouble and that I would never be any better. I lived in this way from sixteen years old to twenty-three, when the doctor diagnosed my case. After this I was advised by a kind friend to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which I did and before I had taken two bottles of it I could work all day. I took in all six bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and about five weeks later I was cured. I have never had a return of this trouble since."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets clear the complexion and sweeten the breath.

After suffering from piles for fifteen years I was cured by using two boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve," writes W. J. Baxter, Northbrook, N. C. It heals everything. Beware of counterfeits.

HIGH SOCIETY IN DIVORCES.—The divorce docket of the Newport, R. I., Supreme Court was issued Saturday. It contains the petitions of James Brown Potter against Cora Urquhart Potter, of Jennie L. Preston against Rev. Charles E. Preston, Emma Guidet Duryea against Gustavus Abel Duryea and Florence Livingston against Robert A. Livingston. Potter, Duryea and Livingston are all of New York, who have resided in Rhode Island just long enough to gain a residence under the one-year clause. There will be no contests.

The petition of Jennie L. Preston recalls the sudden disappearance of her husband, Rev. Charles E. Preston, who was supposed to have committed suicide by jumping from the steamer Puritan. He was afterward found at Troy, N. Y., living with a young woman school teacher.

Mrs. Duryea is a society woman of the Hempstead set and has been quietly living in Newport with her mother for about eighteen months. Her plea is desertion.

Mrs. Florence Livingston is the wife of Robert A. Livingston, a wealthy lawyer in New York, who is a member of the distinguished Livingston family.

TRAMP HUGS CLEO DE MERODE.—Cleo de Merode, the dancer, was kissed publicly on the Boulevard Capucine in Paris Saturday by a ragged laborer named Gaspard.

Cleo was walking with a young clubman. Suddenly Gaspard, who was coming from the opposite direction stopped, exclaiming: "Ah! here is my beloved!"

Then he seized Cleo's waist and drew her against him. Cleo's companion began caning her assailant, but Gaspard knocked him down.

Before the assembled passers-by knew what it was all about, the dirty muscular fellow had again enfolded the frail dancer and was kissing her lips repeatedly, despite her efforts to avoid him.

Several men pounced upon the mad man and turned him over to the police. Before the magistrate the culprit expressed no repentance. He said he had fallen in love with Cleo a year ago, when he saw her on the stage. Ever since he had worshipped her photograph.

When sent to jail Gaspard said: "What crime am I guilty of? Am I not handsomer, stronger and more intelligent than the fellow she was with?"

BATTLE OF GREAT BRIDGE.—The design for a massive and beautiful tablet of bronze to mark the scene of the first patriotic victory of the American Revolution has been received at Norfolk, Va. The tablet is to be erected on a large knoll, at Great Bridge, in Norfolk county, around which the battle of that name raged most fiercely. The historic spot is to be marked by the Daughters of American Revolution and the ceremony of unveiling will be under the auspices of Great Bridge Chapter of that city.

Mrs. Hugh Nelson Page, State regent of the Daughters, has accepted the design and the tablet will be ready for erection prior to June 6 when it is to be unveiled. Geisler, the New York bronze founder, is casting the tablet, which will bear this inscription: "This stone marks the site of the battle of Great Bridge, December 9, 1775, erected by the Daughters of the American Revolution, Norfolk, Va., 1900."

WILL LEAVE CANADA FOR GOOD.—The withdrawal of imperial troops from Canada will be completed this summer, it is semi-officially stated, and General Lord William Seymour, the present commander-in-chief in British North America, will be the last incumbent from abroad. When Lord Seymour leaves Halifax in June with his family for Great Britain, he will not return. The general officer commanding the Canadian militia, who has hitherto resided at Ottawa, will make his residence at Halifax. The official residence in that city, which the imperial government has maintained for the commander-in-chief, will be closed after 250 years' continuous occupation. The Duke of Kent, Queen Victoria's father, was at one time its occupant.

Prevented a Tragedy. Timely information given Mrs. Geo. Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors, but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes that this marvelous medicine cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' Drug Store.

"I had stomach trouble for twenty years and gave up hope of being cured. I began to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It has done me so much good I call it the savior of my life," writes W. R. Wilkerson, Albany, Tenn. It digests what you eat.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP? A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Borcher's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try ONE bottle. Recommended many years ago by all druggists in the world. For sale by Ernest L. Allen, Claud M. Lennon, Warfield & Hall, Charles G. Lennon, W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.

[An Ancient Belief.] The ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon within a man. Any one who has had an attack of sciatic or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the affliction is demonic enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by all druggists.

J. Q. Hood, Justice of the Peace, Crosby, Miss., makes the following statement: "I can certify that One Minute Cough Cure will do all that is claimed for it. My wife could not get her breath and the first dose of it relieved her. It has also benefited my whole family." It acts immediately and cures coughs, colds, croup, grippe, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung troubles.
